Background/Supporting Information

Below is a summary of the first quarter report for the period ending March 31, 2002, submitted by the Greater Minneapolis Convention and Visitors Association (GMCVA) to the City of Minneapolis.

GMCVA staff has noted that the Convention Center has already sold large blocks of space for future use. Current sales results for large groups are mixed. Previously the GMCVA shifted its goals to filling in around these large commitments. For the first quarter in 2002, GMCVA sales to these smaller groups are below their goal level and their 2001 equivalent sales level.
